THE SPEAKERSHIP.—The position of things at Washington remains, at the present writing, (Tuesday) very much as during the last fortnight. The true anti-Nebraska free State members of the House—constituting by far the largest of the three sections—still vote for the most part for Mr. Banks for Speaker—although upon the last two balloting on Monday, Mr. Pennington of New Jersey, received three or four votes. Mr. Banks, however, holds over 100 votes, and it is probable they will continue to be given for him, as there would be but slight prospect of electing any other anti-Nebraska man.

The responsibility of the continued obstruction to the business of the session now rests clearly with the administration men and the Fuller sectionists—for Mr. Banks' friends have offered them the chance of organizing the House, by adopting the plurality rule, and they have voted down the proposition. The test vote on the proposition was one hundred and seven in favor to one hundred and fourteen against. This represents just the apparent strength of the faithful anti-Nebraska men on one side, and the whole opposition, on the other. The vote is significant. It shows that the National Know Nothings and the handful of Strait Whigs, who nearly all of them got into Congress only upon strong anti-Nebraska pledges, are quite ready to falsify every one of those pledges, and defeat the election of any true anti-Nebraska man for Speaker; but that they have not yet been able to make a definitive bargain with the friends of the administration, so as to unite with them, either upon Richardson or any other candidate. They dare not consent to the plurality rule as yet. Their sympathies, however, are entirely with the pro-slavery men and notwithstanding their loud-mouthed professions of devotion to the Union, they are evidently getting ready to amalgamate with the Southern disunion men, who have declared themselves ready not only to "let the Union slide," but to give it a strong push towards destruction, if slavery is not allowed to become nationalized in the Confederacy.

THE RIVAL BEAUTIES. A Novel. By Miss Pardoe. New York: W. P. Fetridge & Co.

Miss Pardoe has established a high reputation as a writer of fiction, and her works are generally received in a very flattering manner by the critics of the English press. As the authoress of "Louis XIV and the Court of France in the Seventeenth Century," her character as a piquant and graphic writer is well established; and her "Romance of the Harem," "City of the Sultan," "Confessions of a Pretty Woman," &c., show that her powers of delineating human character and passions will rank with those of the best writers of fiction. We have not been able to read the volume now under notice; but it is said to be equal, if not superior to any of her former works. It comes to us in a compact and low-priced edition.

For sale by O. R. Patch.

MY FIRST SEASON. By Beatrice Reynolds. Edited by the author of "Counterparts," and "Charles Auchester." New York: W. P. Fetridge & Co.

A tale of English life among the nobility, written in the style of an auto-biography. It embraces some lively pictures of fashionable society. A Polish gentleman and his sister, refugees from Russian despotism, are the most prominent characters. The story is strongly written, and commands the attention of the reader.

For sale by O. R. Patch.

MR. GIDDINGS.—In Congress, on Friday, this gentleman denied that he had used such a remark as was attributed to him by Mr. McMullen, viz: That the government would eventually go into the hands of the North, and that the Abolition party would elect their candidate for the Presidency, and that then the Union must and ought to be dissolved.

CRYSTALOTYPES.—Excellent portraits are now taken upon paper, by this new process of "light painting," at the well known establishments of the Burnham Brothers, and also by Mr. Hardy at his painting-rooms on Main Street, below the Bangor House. They are taken in a large and handsome style, and are very appropriate for Holiday Gifts.

THE REASONS FOR BACKING OUT. It appears now that the border ruffians of Missouri, concluded (in view of the Sharpe's rifles) to permit the United States troops to enforce the laws of the bogus Legislature of Kansas! President Pierce, they say, has promised that they shall do it. The following is an extract from a pro-slavery paper in Missouri:

From the Jefferson (Mo.) Enquirer.

By yesterday's mail we received an Extra from the office of the Lexington Express dated the 6th inst., 10 o'clock, a. m., which contains some additional information to that published in our last dispatches from Weston. The tone and spirit of the Extra is calculated to do more harm than good. No sensible man doubted for one moment, when the citizens of Lawrence set the laws of the territory at defiance, but Governor Shannon would be aided by the General Government, in any way he would ask, in sustaining and enforcing the laws of the Territory; and now that President Pierce has signified his readiness to order out the U. S. troops, it would be more commendable on the part of the citizens of Missouri not to interfere, but let the proper authorities of the Territory, backed by the U. S. Government, enforce the laws! One of the writers in the Extra alluded to, would have the people of Missouri take the power out of the hands of the General Government, to enforce the laws in its own territories, and take the power in their own hands. This is wrong, and is well calculated to engender a bitter feeling in the minds of the people of the Territory, when it is much better a neighborly and good feeling should prevail.

We copy the following extract from a dispatch from E. J. Sharp, of Lafayette county, to the Express office, and published to the Extra:

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 4, 1855.

We have just arrived here and find the excitement high. The President has ordered the troops out.

It is reported here that some of the Jackson men have deserted, (about 30.)

Jackson has not done her duty, and Lafayette will go it on her own hook, and will make the best show of any county, (if they don't fight,) though I think they are the best pluck.

Our party have arrested two of the leaders of the rebellion party, a Mr. Pomeroy, and another man at Atchison, who had in his possession papers showing that they intended setting fire to, and burning Atchison to ashes. They had to send to Weston to get a guard for the town. Things are hot, and we will not leave until they quiet down.

E. J. SHARP.

Such conduct on the part of our citizens, right in the face of the dispatch from the President, offering the troops to the aid of Gov. Shannon, should the exigency of the case require it, is altogether wrong. The charge that about 40 of the citizens of Jackson deserted is what we do not believe.—We feel warranted in placing this construction upon the conduct of those charged with desertion, that is: so soon as they ascertained the United States troops would be ordered to the aid of Gov. Shannon, very properly refused to take any further steps in the matter, until called upon by the constituted authorities. This, we presume, is the true state of the case.

THE KANSAS DIFFICULTIES. A letter from Lawrence, Dec. 6, to the Lexington (Mo.) Express, states that there were then at Franklin and Lecompton twelve hundred pro-slavery men, eager to demolish Lawrence, and hardly restrained by Gov. Shannon; "and," says the letter, "unless their arms and provisions are surrendered this evening, Lawrence is to be razed to the ground to-morrow"—a threat which seems not to have been executed. The writer says:

"Pomeroy, Dr. Mott, and several other persons are under arrest in the pro-slavery camp. The pro-slavery party commands seven pieces of artillery—six pounders.—The probable force in Lawrence, from personal observation, numbers 800—that is, 400 soldiers, armed with 300 Sharp's rifles, one piece of artillery certain, and probably more. The north end of Main street ditched and redoubts thrown up to bear on the hill, in case of attack from that quarter. Flag of truce on the hill, raised this morning, and two United States flags in the city."

THE ROBBERS ARRESTED. Simon F. Walker and Officer Lane went to Oldtown Sunday 23d, and having procured a search warrant, visited the house of Mr. Cummings, where John W. McClure boarded, whom they had reason to suspect of the robberies at the house of Mr. Pickering some weeks since, and of an excellent fur coat at Mr. Murphy's house on State street last Saturday night.—Mr. Pickering's garments were found in the house. The pocket book with drafts and notes were found under a plank in the barn, where he disclosed they were. Mr. Murphy's coat was also found.—McClure made a clean breast of it, and owned up the whole affair. McClure has been arrested four times before by Mr. Walker for robberies. He has been convicted three times, and served out two sentences of a year each in the State prison and one of a year in House of Correction. He is but 29 years of age, and is a smart good looking fellow. Mr. Walker's suspicions were excited by observing him about the city.—Journal.

A YOUNG WOMAN SUPPOSED TO BE MURDERED BY HER FATHER. The dead body of Joanna Galvin, or Gullivan, 21 years of age, was found at the house of her father, Michael Galvin, 193 Congress st., last evening. There were several severe bruises on the head and body, and it is reported that before death she made statements to the effect that her father attempted to violate her person, but being repulsed, had beaten her violently—from which brutal assaults it is supposed her death resulted.

Coroner Smith took the body in charge, and ordered the arrest of the father, who was committed to await an investigation of the horrid charge against him. Galvin is a common laborer, and said to be of intemperate habits.—The deceased has a brother who is or was a porter at the Tremont House.—Boston Transcript.

SNOW. A very welcome snow storm commenced yesterday, and promises fair sleighing, which is now so much needed. Two or three inches only of snow fell before evening, when the weather moderated, but the snow continued when our paper was made up.

Congress having adjourned over Christmas, until to-day, Wednesday, we have no Washington despatch this morning.

"When I goes shoppin'," said an old lady, "I allers asks for what I wants, and if they have it, and it's suitable, and I feel inclined to buy it, and it's cheap, and can't be got at any place for less, I most allers takes it, without chaffering about it all day, as most people does."

THE NATIONALS IN THE HOUSE.—The N. Y. Courier thus [illegible] treats of the two self-styled national parties in the House, and of what they are doing towards organization:

"The National Democracy has put forward as an exponent of its nationality, a candidate who derives almost his entire support from the South, getting one vote from New England, one from New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa, six from Pennsylvania, three from Illinois, and two from Indiana—in other words, one from the Eastern States, eight from the Middle States, and eight from the Western States.—The claim of peculiar nationality by a party which can muster only this paltry force from a portion of the Union which comprises more than two-thirds of its entire population, is an assumption so gross as to be, on its very face, absurd. Its effrontery falls little short of the latter day saints in their church-ing all the rest of Christendom. And what makes the assumption all the more ridiculous is, that all this nationality developes itself only at one single point—the support of a measure which appealed directly to sectional interests and sentiments, and was carried by an almost universal sectional rally to its support. Yet these gentlemen are resolved to run their national candidate to the death, if need be.

The National Americans are a more extraordinary set. There are about forty of them.—This little squad sets apart on a national eminence of their own, and coolly denationalizes everybody who does not come over and join it. They are even worse off than the Democracy in regard to material to make a national show upon, but their policy is to bury up what they do not like to expose to view. They do not agree among themselves in regard to the justice of the Nebraska bill, and base their sole claim to nationality upon the declared intention of saying and doing nothing about it. Circumstances give them an importance to which their paucity of numbers could never entitle them, but so long as both the great mass of the House and the great mass of the country take the wrong of the Nebraska bill as the paramount issue, these men, in evading that issue and preventing it from being brought to a definite solution, are acting the part of a faction, and making their national pretensions a bye-word and a scorn among men."

MONETARY AFFAIRS. Boston, Monday Morning, Dec. 24. Within a few days past there has occurred a decidedly favorable change in the Boston money market. Such paper as could not be passed in the early part of the week below 11 and 12 per cent, was readily negotiated on Friday and Saturday at 9 and 10 per cent, showing a decline in the outside rates of interest of two per cent. The city Banks also have loaned more freely since their substantial increase of specie, which amounted to $3,638,142 according to the last official returns. The receipts of gold from California in the past fortnight have been about one million of dollars more than the exports, and further arrivals are expected this week.

There is just now very little demand for foreign Exchange, but the supply of freight and produce bills is increasing, and the asking rate for Sterling is 8½ per cent, which is ¼ per cent lower than it was by the last packet. The great staple products of the country are yet to go forward to a large extent, and the bills to be drawn against these shipments, together with the freight monies, will be likely to keep the exchanges in favor of this country, and if the late foreign orders for American securities should be continued, there will not only be a cessation of specie exports, but very probably a reflux of gold from the other side. The recent panic among the Banks has subsided, and those useful institutions having lately fortified themselves with an ample basis, will no doubt be more careful in future in regard to excessive expansions.—Boston Journal.

A FIGHT IN WASHINGTON.—The Tribune of Saturday says:

The spiciest item of Washington news is the report of an encounter with fists between Ex-Governor Smith of Virginia and the editor of the Star. The editor seems to have got the worst of it.

The item is as follows:

A street fight occurred this afternoon between Ex-Governor William Smith, member of the House from Virginia, and Douglas Wallach, the editor of the Star. It grew out of an article on Smith's speech in yesterday's Star. Smith accosted Wallach with regard to it; the lie was given; then they struck each other, clinched, fell, and rolled into the gutter, Smith upper most. They were then separated. Wallach has one finger badly bitten, and his visage somewhat marred. I have not seen Smith.

THE GREAT CENTRAL SEA IN TROPICAL AFRICA.—In the Calwer Missionsblett we find, with some letters from Dr. Rebman dated the 13th and 30th of April, a map which is communicated by the learned missionary. On this map between the Equator and 10 deg. of south latitude, and between the 23d and 30th meridian, lies an immense sea, without outlet, twice as large as the Black Sea including the Sea of Azof. It is designated Ukerewe, or Inner Sea, and the well known Njassa Sea appears as a small bay on the south east. Dr. Rebman refers to a map in detail which his companion, Dr. Erhardt, is bringing to Europe. This great discovery, consequences of which can hardly be estimated, has rested hitherto on the testimony of the natives of both shores of the Inner Sea with whom the missionaries came in contact. Dr. A. Petermann remarks, in a letter in The Athenaeum, that the African geographer, Mr. Cooley, argued long ago for the existence of a single great sea in the center of Equatorial Africa, and this opinion was prevented from becoming general only by the obstinate opposition of the missionaries of Eastern Africa, who now confess their error.

Among the "quaint and curious" correspondence almost daily received at the Cosmopolitan office in this city, we have been shown the following from a genius "out West." To the inquiry propounded him by the Circular of the Association, demanding—"how many papers are published in your place—population, &c." The reply was:—"No papers published here, because the people can't read." The population is as follows:

Irish,	160
Amsterdam Dutch,	175
Other dam Dutch,	80
White Men,	7

"There was formerly eight white men, but your humble servant has vacated the ranche and pitched his tent in Mineral Point, where if he can aid the Cosmopolitan in a moral or religious way, command him. Yours."

DEEP LIVING.—Some very deep sea soundings were recently made by our North Pacific Exploring Expedition. By a new contrivance, invented by Lieut. Brooke, the lead was carried down 1700 fathoms (nearly two miles) and loop goose quills full of the bottom brought up. Insects of the extremest littleness were found in the sand, which showed that they had been alive until the enormous pressure, under which they had their being, was removed. Many may think this to be a discovery of no consequence—but it was precisely by means of such Lieut. Maury demonstrated the feasibility of laying the submarine telegraph to England. The delicacy of the insects which he drew up showed that there was no current across the line of the telegraphic cable to disturb its position.

The Old Bachelor's New Year.

Oh, the Spring hath less of brightness
Every year,
And the snow a ghastlier whiteness
Every year;
Nor does summer blossoms quicken,
Nor does autumn's fruitage thicken,
As it did—the seasons sicken
Every year.

It is growing colder, colder,
Every year,
And I feel that I am older,
Every year;
And my limbs are less elastic,
And my fancy not so plastic,
Yes, my habits grow monastic
Every year.

'Tis becoming bleak and bleaker,
Every year,
And my hopes are waxing weaker
Every year;
Care I now for merry dancing,
Or for eyes with passion glancing?
Love is less and less entrancing
Every year.

Oh, the days that I have squander'd
Every year,
And the friendships rudely sunder'd
Every year!
Of the ties that might have twined me,
Until Time to Death resigned me,
My infirmities remind me
Every year.

Sad and sad to look before us,
Every year,
With a heavy shadow o'er us
Every year!
To behold each blossom faded,
And to know we might have made it
An immortal garland braided,
Round the year.

Many a spectral beckoning finger,
Year by year,
Chides me that so long I linger,
Year by year;
Every early comrade sleeping
In the churchyard, whither, weeping,
I, alone, unwept, am creeping,
Year by year.

Ladies' Own Journal.

A GOOD FOUNDATION FOR A ROMANCE.—The Oswego Palladium tells the following story, which looks reasonable enough to be true:

"Two of our citizens have recently discovered titles to a large estate in New York city and in New Jersey, of which they have remained in blissful ignorance all their lives. The property in New York is claimed by the discovery of some old title deeds which have been lost since the time of the revolution. The circumstances are, that about the time of the breaking out of the revolution, an old lady resided upon a farm now embracing the most central part of New York city, and not willing to encounter the troubles incident to the approaching struggle, she returned to Holland, her native country, to remain till the war was over, leaving a daughter in New York and sons in the country. But, unfortunately, about a year previous to the close of the war, she died suddenly, and when search was made for the deed to her farm and other property in this country, they could not be found, and remained undiscovered until a few weeks ago. In the meantime her family was scattered, and her personal effects, household furniture, &c., were distributed with them. Among other articles, a relative came in possession of an old bureau that had been in her family over forty years.

It had always been noticed by the possessor of this old heirloom, that upon the under side of one of the drawers was nailed firmly a square piece of tin, but it was supposed to have been placed there to cover a hole or defect in the drawer. A few weeks ago, however, the lady who possessed the article, was led, on overhauling its contents, and noticing that the drawer was completely sound, to remove this piece of tin. On doing so, what should she discover but the long missing documents, consisting of several title deeds, on parchment, in the Dutch language, all in a perfect state of preservation. Of course this discovery was at once made known to the relatives and heirs, among the number two well known citizens of Oswego, and the proper steps for recovering the property, most of which is now held by the corporation of New York, are about to be taken.

But this is not all. The discovery of these documents has led to the discovery of title to valuable property, embracing some fifty thousand acres of land in New Jersey. In this case, it seems an ancestor of these heirs, who was a large landholder nearly one hundred years ago, leased a large quantity of land in New Jersey in small farms, to different individuals for a term of ninety-nine years. These leases are now about to expire, and the property will revert to the heirs above named.

SUCCESSFUL DENTISTRY. It will be hard to find a more complete or efficient establishment for everything that pertains to the care or remedial treatment of the teeth, than that of Dr. J. A. Cummings, 25 Tremont street, Boston. Dr. Cummings has recently associated with himself, in business, Dr. G. H. P. Flagg, a successful and experienced dentist, in order to meet the constantly increasing demand for his professional services.—The business will hereafter be conducted by Drs. Cummings & Flagg. Lately enlarged, their establishment now embraces five spacious and tastefully furnished apartments, having three distinct operating rooms, and a laboratory unsurpassed by any in the country for the manufacture of teeth, plates, and all the modern improvements in the art. By improved apparatus, they are enabled to furnish the most thorough and finished description of work at quite moderate prices.

Even the extraction of teeth, which has heretofore been considered so painful and difficult, is improved in their hands, by long practice, superior instruments, and the judicious administration of ether.

Dr. Cummings does not, however, confine himself to surgical skill. A painful tooth may sometimes be saved to good purpose, by proper medical treatment, and for this reason he has prepared a Nerve Anodyne which often saves the use of the forceps, and restores the tooth to tolerable health. The great popularity of, and demand for, this article, sufficiently testifies its utility. We have probably said enough to convince any one who suffers from "toothache" that a call at 25 Tremont street is the shortest and surest road to peace and quietness.—Boston Traveller.

"SHOW ME A DEMOCRAT!" A rather green sort of a well dressed individual walked into a Broadway saloon the other day, and stretching himself up to his full height, exclaimed in a loud voice:

"Where are the Locos? Show me a Loco, gentlemen, and I will show you a liar!"

A large number of quiet gentlemen were present, and in an instant one of them stood before the noisy inquirer in a warlike attitude and exclaimed:

"I am a democrat, sir!"

"You—are?" queried the incredulous greeny.

"Yes, sir, I am."

"Well, just step round the corner, and I'll show you a fellow, who said I couldn't find a democrat in this Ward!"

GETTING INTO SAFE QUARTERS.—The following strange story appears in a late English paper:

"A most extraordinary instance of fox preservation lately occurred at Castle Castle Reynard, returned there after running a wide ring, but finding his earth closed, took a line for the drawing-room window. A visitor who had watched the hunt from the turret, and was puzzled to hear one or two of the hounds bay up to the window, while the whole of the field were digging furiously at a drain outside the garden, descended into that room, and found Mrs. Phillips knitting before the fire.—On telling her how oddly the fox had been lost, she quietly rose, and opening the door of a cupboard, showed him the animal lying curled up on one of the shelves. It seems that he had dashed through the glass, and sued for compassion. Mrs. Phillips rang for her maid, and while the latter kept guard against the hounds at the window she found a refuge for the fox. She kept him there all night, and fed him. The cunning animal soon became familiar with the domestics, and allowed them to pat his head before he was let out the next morning into his native woodland wild."

Ladies' Special Notice.

During the stormy times attending the "Gift Enterprise," at which envy cavilled so long and loud, the subscriber never pretended to offer his goods for less than their real value, although his neighbors were continually advertising so to do; but now, during the Holidays—for the next ten days, at least—I am going to sell goods in such quantities as shall astonish my neighbors, and shall cause the closest buyers of Fancy Dry Goods to say that they never "saw the like," and that "the half had not been told them."

The citizens of Bangor shall, now—perhaps, for the first time—have an example of a new and fresh first class stock (not refuse and shop worn) really marked down for ten days. All are invited to call, and by pricing my goods test the truth of my representations. For a partial enumeration of the articles comprised in my stock, see large advertisement in this paper.

I have also just received a choice lot of Embroideries, selected from the last importations for this season, which I shall be happy to show our customers as "Holiday Gifts," among which are—French, Honiton, Malta, Swiss, Scotch Cambric, Lace, Aplique Lace, and Book Collars—some very desirable Sets, in new patterns—fresh patterns Stamped Collars and Bands; Emb'd L. C. Hdkfs, something entirely new in style; Emb'd Sleeves, Embd Bands in French Cambric and Dimity; Mohair Caps, Coiffures, and Head Dresses. Crystalotype Likenesses, (or Pictures on Paper.) These Pictures, which have been gaining in public favor for some years past in Boston and elsewhere, are now presented for the consideration of those who wish for a large number of Pictures at small price. They resemble Engravings, are not reversed, and may be painted in Oil or Water Colors. Small Daguerreotypes may be enlarged by this process to almost any size. This we consider a very valuable consideration, as many persons who have small Pictures of deceased friends would be glad to have them enlarged, so as to be hung in frames upon the wall.

The subscribers have recently secured the services of J. R. Burnham, who has been operating in the vicinity, and has collected a large number of specimens of persons in the following towns, viz.—Oldtown, Orono, Hampden, Frankfort, Frankfort Marsh, Bucksport, Prospect, Searsport and Belfast, which may be seen at the Main-st. room.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills will cure any disease of the skin, of the longest standing. William Frederick Anderson, of Yadkin, South Carolina, suffered for a long time from eruptions on the skin,—his face, arms, and legs were covered with little pustules and sores of a scrofulic nature. For the cure of this unsightly and painful disfigurement he tried a variety of remedies, which failed to benefit him. At last he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which soon produced a favorable change, and by a few weeks perseverance with these remedies he was completely cured. This famous Ointment will cure ulcers and old wounds of twenty years standing.

Mysteries of the Post Office!

[A Mail Bag is an epitome of human life.]

TEN YEARS AMONG THE MAIL BAGS,

Or Notes from the Diary of a Special Agent of the Post Office Department."

By J. HOLBROOK.

12mo....432 pp....price $1,25

Beautifully illustrated with 16 Steel Portraits, by Ritchie, and 12 Wood Engravings, from designs chiefly by Darley.

This work—undertaken with the sanction of the chief officers of the Post Office Department, by a gentleman who has long been and is still, one of the Special Agents of that Department—is the first book of the kind ever issued, calculated to give the public an insight into the practical operations of the Post Office Establishment, and the almost certain means which skill and experience have furnished for the detection and punishment of offenders against the laws enacted for the security of the mails and the inviolability of private correspondence.

Never has a volume been offered to the public under a more hearty and universal commendation of that enlightened and powerful organ of public opinion. Brief extracts from some of these many flattering notices are annexed:

"The book will prove one of the most entertaining of the season, and in liveliness, interest and general truth to nature, will form a pleasant addition to our stock of popular light literature."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"We are bound to concede to Mr. Holbrook's narrative of his Post Office experiences the merit of being an exceedingly interesting and suggestive book."—N. Y. Herald.

"The cutest and most entertaining book we have recently seen. Some of Mr. Holbrook's stories, unvarnished recitals of fact all that, only make Reynold's monstrosities, and any one who reads them will realize at once that romance still lives and thrives amid our modern life."—Boston Post.

"This work commends itself by the nature of its subject to every person who can read a book, or write a letter."—Philad'a Pennsylvanian.

"A more amusing and at the same time interesting work of its kind, has never been published in America."—Philad'a Bulletin.

"A well written and amusing work, from which we shall make an extract or two for the benefit of the community."—Philad'a Sat. Post.

"It abounds with sketches of novel and instructive matter."—Philad'a Inquirer.

"This book is indeed a novelty, exceedingly entertaining, and opening a new source of amusement."—Hartford Daily Courant.

"There is substance enough in the incidents, plots, and characters contained in his sketches, to fill a dozen novels."—Richmond Enquirer.

"No person who has ever allowed himself to harbor for a moment the idea of opening another person's letter, can read the book without shuddering at the frightful precipice on which he has stood."—New Haven Register.

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Yesterday being Christmas, no despatches to the press were sent over the line.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAILS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.

The store of Lafray & Sons on Broadway was robbed on Sunday morning, of laces, silks, &c., to the amount of $25,000. The goods were afterwards found in a Police station adjoining store, whither they had been removed by the burglars preparatory to being carried off. The thieves escaped.

The Tribune correspondent, telegraphs from Washington: Should the Republicans in favor of the adoption of the plurality system to elect a Speaker be pressed, an amendment will be proposed embodying the principle that no person heretofore voted for, shall be eligible to that office.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.—Brig Edinburg, of Bangor, at New York from Savannah, lost mainmast, main-stay-sail, &c., and sustained other damage.

The brig Crimea, Robinson, from Thomaston for New Orleans with 200 bbls lime put into Nassau 21st, in distress, having on 23d inst. carried away foremast head, topmast, sails, &c. Capt. Hiram Robinson, who was master of the vessel when she left Thomaston, was lost overboard Saturday night.

FROM KANSAS.—ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19. General Shankland has just arrived here from Kansas. He says the report published in this city yesterday afternoon, of the surrender of their arms by the people of Lawrence, is totally incorrect.—The propositions of peace came from Atchison and Shannon, at a council held at Lawrence on Friday last, at which a treaty of peace was concluded. To the demand made upon them to obey the laws and deliver up their arms, the people of Lawrence responded by professing constant willingness to do the former, but flatly refused to yield the latter point. On these terms the hostilities were terminated, and the Missouri troops received orders on Sunday morning to disband.

THE NON-ORGANIZATION OF THE HOUSE.—The correspondent of the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer draws the following sombre picture of affairs at Washington:

At no time have the prospects of organization been more unsatisfactory. Harmony of feeling and concert of action are not to be found. The Banks fear of course stand firm, and the Buchanan men are immovable. The middle men maintain their position of non-effectives. It is believed that the supporters of Mr Banks are sincerely anxious for a decision either for or against their candidate. They are therefore exempt from any imputation of delaying the public business, and wasting the public money.

It must be admitted that the condition of affairs in the House is most melancholy. Discord and anarchy reign. The most desperate intrigues are in progress between the democrats and the Know Nothings. The democratic K. N's of the South are anxious to go over unconditionally, and would take it no unreasonable objection to union that the democrats have passed a resolution proscribing the sentiments and principles they profess. They wish to abandon the nobody by the way-side, on which they have ridden into Congress Humphrey Marshall and other odds and ends of Whigs protest against this absorption into the ranks of their old opponents, and there is a prospect of a schism in the new party which will strangle the American Hercules in its cradle.

At the present writing, appearances indicate that a democratic organization will be effected, and that the slavery question will be continued by the party with a vitality never before known.

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 21. The British discovery ship Resolute, abandoned in the Arctic ice, was brought by Capt. Buddington into New London yesterday, with all her stores, armaments and equipments. She is a new and handsome bark, and is worth $100,000. When found she had drifted over a thousand miles from where she was abandoned.

ALBANY, Dec. 21. The Prohibitory Liquor Law sustained. The Seventh Judicial District Supreme Court in the banc has just made a decision sustaining the constitutionality of the prohibitory liquor law as far as brought before them. This decision reverses the decision of Judge Parker on the 4th section of the law, on both points. Prosecutions under this law will be commenced immediately.

R. D. EDDY Solicitor of Patents.

[From the Boston Courier, Dec. 1, 1855.]

During the time I have occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, from the 4th of March, 1849, to the 31st of December, 1852, the business of this Office as Solicitor of Patents, There were few if any persons acting in that capacity who had more business before the Patent Office, and there were none who gained a more high reputation for skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most able and successful Patent Solicitors that I have had to do with, and he has the best means of ascertaining, in a very short time, whether a person making application for a patent is entitled to receive it or not. He is also capable of putting a patent application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

[Late Commissioner of Patents.]

[From the present Commissioner.]

August 17 1855 — During the time I have held the office of Assistant Commissioner of Patents Mr. E. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with this Office as Solicitor of Patents. From my official intercourse with him I have formed a high opinion of his capabilities as a professional practitioner, and of his fidelity in the conduct of applications entrusted to his care.

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing.

PREPARED ONLY BY

REV WALKER CHAMBERLAIN

Sole Proprietor Cornwallville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs it speedily allays the most distressing sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the exciting cause of the cough, at frequently enables the sufferer to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold in trial bottles 25 cents each, large bottles each containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Houlton, Maine.

Houlton, Feb 7th 1853.

To Rev Walker Clark Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you last fall has done me more effectual service than all the physicians I have employed for a cough for two years that it ever received.

From Rev Jesse Lloyd Lewiston Falls

Rev Chamberlain Dear Sir—I have used your Cough Mixture in my family with the most decided success, and I have several times recommended it to others who have used it with the same success. I have no hesitation in saying that it is the best Cough Mixture I have ever used.

From Rev Fletcher Clark, Agent for North Dunmont, Maine.

Dear Sir—A number of the most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several who had symptoms of consumption and thought they had been doctored for it, testified without receiving any benefit, have been especially cured by the Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs Hubbard, Thorndike Me

To Rev Walker Clark Dear Sir—I suppose you think I have used much of the Cough Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and soreness in the lungs. I had previously taken several kinds of medicine and had been under the care of several physicians without obtaining the least relief. Happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. I procured a bottle which I began to take according to direction and was relieved by which in a few days I was entirely cured

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The Greatest of the Age!

MR KENNEDY of Roxbury has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cured running sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two to three bottles will cure the system of piles

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure fever and running ulcers

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

Indeed we always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have not tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as, that a common weed growing upon the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs, nor ands about it as in the case of many others but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bottles out in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty and has been perfectly successful in every case. Two bottles will always restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature it will cause very singular feelings but you must not be alarmed—they will always disappear in from four days to a week—There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt. Daniel Abbott of Franklin, Maine, July 16 1856 says "I was taken sick one year ago last April upon my passage from Havana, to Charleston, S C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of Holloway's German Bitters in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about 6 o'clock at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid of me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night and the next day found myself well man—I have not been without your medicine since having sailed between Baltimore, Charleston and the West Indies Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it

Jos B Hall & Co, Presque Isle, Aroostook Co, Maine, April 24 1854, say "We, met with send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story

Messrs Jos B Hall & Co—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by Holloway's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle she is enjoying better health than she has for years—She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German bitters. WILLIAM CLARK

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases
